STUY BIOLOGY SOCIETY

At the Biology Society, members can come together to explore bio and serve their community by building a free bio website for kids throughout NYC. Whether you're a writer, video creator, coder, or biologist, join us to create your own lessons.

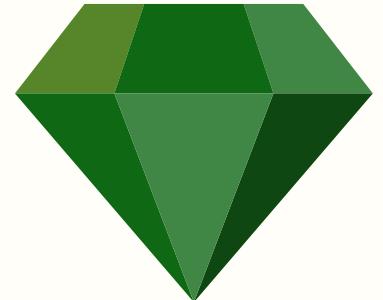

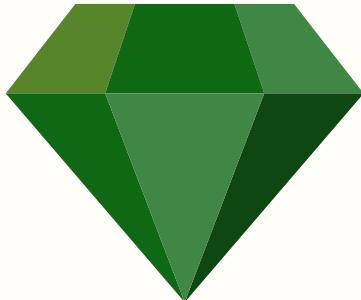

Submit your small projects (games, riddles, articles!) to be featured on our website. We are a low commitment club that also provides resources and tutoring for freshmen bio students while delving into advanced topics with engaging activities.
